

Human Trafficking and Slavery

Purpose

Davall Gears and Mollart Universal Joints are committed to a work environment that is free from human trafficking, forced labour and unlawful child labour (Human trafficking and slavery) we believe we are responsible for promoting ethical and lawful employment practices. These practices are also required to be followed by our direct key suppliers worldwide and have been communicated to them.

Scope

This policy covers all employees of Davall Gears & Mollart Universal Joints and all suppliers; in the event anything in this policy may conflict with local law the local law will control the interpretation and application of this policy.

Definitions

Human trafficking: The recruitment, transportation, transfer, harbouring or receipt of persons by means of the threat or use of force or any other forms of abduction, fraud, of deception, of the abuse of power or a position of vulnerability or of the giving or receiving of payments or benefits to achieve the consent of a person having control over another person for the purpose of exploitation.

Forced labour: all work or service, not voluntarily performed, that is obtained from individual under the threat of forced or penalty.

Harmful Child labour: Consist of the employment of children that is economically exploitative, or is likely to be hazardous to or interfere with, the Childs education, or to be harmful to the child's health or physical, mental, spiritual, moral or social development

Rationale

Davall Gears and Mollart Universal Joints will not tolerate the use of unlawful child labour or forced labour in the manufacturing of products or service and does not intend to accept products or service from suppliers the employ or utilize child or forced labour in any manner. Human trafficking and slavery are crimes under international law, these crimes exist in many countries throughout the world and this policy defines how Premier Manufacturing Group will make all efforts to eradicate human trafficking and slavery from not only within the organisation but also from its supply chain.

Requirements

Davall Gears and Mollart Universal joints expects its suppliers to conduct business with honesty, integrity and adhere to the following standards>

1. Will not use forced or compulsory labour, i.e., any work or service that a worker performs involuntarily under threat of penalty.
2. Will ensure the overall terms of employment are voluntary.
3. Will comply will minimum age requirements prescribed by applicable law.
4. Will compensate its workers with wages and benefits that meet or exceed the legal requirements.
5. Will comply with applicable law concerning maximum hours of work
6. Will provide a safe and healthy working environment. (Including any company provided living quarters)
7. Will encourage diverse workplace and provide a workplace that is free from discrimination, harassment, and any other form of abuse.

Certification

By their acceptance of any purchase orders from Davall Gears and Mollart Universal joints all suppliers acknowledge and certify their compliance and principles and requirements of this policy and suppliers should be able to demonstrate compliance at the request of Davall Gears and Mollart Universal joints and ensure this policy or their own policy is cascaded down to sub-tier suppliers